1. The distribution of the magazine Selecciones Sovieticas is handled in Lima, Peru, through a small bookshop at Jiron Lampa 680, owned by Juan Alvarez. According to the latter, he received three hundred copies of the March issue, most of which were distributed to news stands in Lima. Fifty copies were sent to Arequipa and Cuzco. The supply was insufficient to meet the demand. Accordingly, Alvarez has requested Buenos Aires to supply five to eight hundred copies of the next issue.
2. At present, subscriptions to Selecciones Sovieticas cannot be entered by direct correspondence with Buenos Aires, but must be placed through Alvarez, who has exclusive distribution rights to the magazine in Peru.
